Clifford Riskedahl

In December 1972, untimely death took Clifford Riskedahl, prominent Tuttle businessman and community leader. Clifford began working for Kremen's Store in 1934, was appointed manager in 1938 and purchased the business in 1948. He is remembered as a devoted father, respected business leader and a promoter of worthwhile school, church and civic projects. During 1973 ownership of the store was acquired by Wayne and Jane Benz, who operate it as Benz's Super Valu.
