

This history will be just a brief synopsis of the past few years.

After Clifford's death in 1972 I remained in our home in Tuttle for several years. In 1974 I opened a gift shop and after retiring from that business I sold my home in 1977 and moved to Bismarck where I have lived ever since. I have a number of relatives here, and have found retirement keeps me busy. I have hobbies and also do some volunteer work.

To my old friends at Tuttle and the surrounding area, the welcome mat is always out at 2026 North 6th St., Bismarck.
