

In Memoriam

We assemble here today to pay tribute to the deceased and to minister to the living. In this reverent service we hold in loving memory the character and spirit of the one whom we are honoring. We are also here to give consolation and comfort to the bereaved.

That this service may be one of inspiration and solace, let us join together with the thought that out of this experience there shall come something precious . . . a treasure that shall enrich us for the years ahead.

"And lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." —Matthew 28:20
