Ruby Sauter, 69, 215 West Turnpike Avenue, Bismarck, North Dakota, died Monday, December 2, 1991, at her home after a six month illness.

She was born July 13, 1922, at Arena, North Dakota, to Eberhardt and Mathilda (Freeh) Sauter. She grew up in Tuttle and graduated from Tuttle High School.

Ruby worked at the Riskedahl's Store in Tuttle for many years, retiring in 1974. Later she was the first manager of the Tuttle Senior Citizen Retirement Project before moving to Bismarck in 1986.

She was a member of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, and a former member of the English Lutheran Church at Tuttle where she taught Sunday School and belonged to Martha Circle. Ruby enjoyed gardening, solving puzzles and following the fortunes of the Minnesota Twins. She loved her home, her family (including her 19 nieces and nephews and her 29 great-nieces and nephews), and the many friends who supported her so faithfully during her battle with cancer.

Survivors include four sisters and two brothers-in-law, Erna Riskedahl, Viola Bailey, and Mae and M.D. "Pat" McFerran, all of Bismarck, and Lynora and Art Scherbenske, Tuttle; one brother and sister-in-law, Edwin and Ella Sauter of Bismarck; and a special friend, Ruth Stark, Tuttle. Preceding her in death were her parents, two sisters, and two brothers.
