

Louise made this quilt for me probably in the early 1980s. Many of the squares are made from material used for a dress or skirt that I'd sewed. The quilt has traveled with me from home to home, from TX to CO to MD and back to CO. It lays at the foot of my bed every winter, and it gets pulled up when I need to be more cozy and warm.

Each square is stitched and tied.

