

John Bailey

John "Jack" H. Bailey, 83, 2126 N. Kavaney Drive, died May 14, 1991, in a Bismarck hospital. Services will be held at 11 a.m. Friday at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, with the Rev. Marvin Korman officiating. Burial will be in Tuttle Cemetery.

Visitation begins at 1 p.m. Thursday at Boelter Funeral Home, Bismarck.

Mr. Bailey was born Nov. 3, 1907, at Dublin, Texas, to Edward and Florence Bailey. He was raised in Spur, Texas, and graduated from high school there in 1928. He served in the Civilian Conservation Corps in New Mexico. He married Viola Sauter of Tuttle Jan. 14, 1942. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II. The Baileys moved to Bismarck in 1946, and worked for the Greyhound Corp., as managers for the Greyhound Post House (bus depot restaurant).

From 1966 until his retirement in 1977, he was director of food service at Valley City State College. The Baileys returned to Bismarck in 1983.

He served as post commander of Tuttle-Robinson American Legion and was a member of Veterans of Foreign Wars, Elks, Masonic Lodge and Good Shepherd Lutheran Church. He also served as a volunteer at the North Dakota Heritage Center.

He is survived by his wife, Viola; and one daughter and son-in-law, Sandra and Paul Ogren, St. Paul, Minn.

of Life Lutheran Church with the Rev. Jeff Franko officiating. Burial will be in Sunset Memorial Gardens, where the military graveside honors will be provided by VFW Post 1326 of Bismarck.

Duane Sauter loved camping and driving his all-terrain vehicles.

Visitation will be from 5-9 p.m. Sunday, 9 a.m.-9 p.m. Monday at Eastgate Funeral Service, Bismarck, and will continue at the church one hour prior to services.

Duane Sauter was born Aug. 3, 1931, at Arena, the son of Walter and Lydia (Leno) Sauter. He was raised and educated in that area, and attended schools in Tuttle, graduating in 1948. He attended Capital Commercial College in Bismarck. He enlisted into the United States Air Force Jan. 9, 1951. Following basic training he was stationed at Sandia Air Force Base in Albuquerque, N.M. He married Evangeline "Van" Biech Nov. 11, 1952, at Tuttle. Following their marriage they lived in Albuquerque until Duane's discharge from the service in 1955. They lived in several cities throughout North Dakota and in 1957, they moved to Bismarck.

Duane worked for Meyer Broadcasting and Northwestern Bell Yellow Pages until he started working at Capital Electric Co-op. For most of the 21 years that he worked there, he was the public relations director. Duane was instrumental in the initiation of employing handicapped persons at Capital Electric Co-op. This resulted in Capital Electric receiving the Bismarck-Mandan Mayors Employer of Handicap Award. He retired in January of 1990.

Duane was a past member of the Board of the Bis-Man Chamber of Commerce, and was on the executive committee in 1975, and he was also the acting coordinator for the Burleigh County Water Users Co-op. He was a member of the American Legion 40 and 8, the AMVETS, and the Bismarck Elks 1199.

He is survived by his wife, Van; one daughter and son-in-law, Candace and Bob Eckert, Bismarck; two sons, and daughters-in-law, Dwight and Barbara, Los Angeles, Calif., and Kyle and Cydra, Fargo; two grandchildren, Amber and Robbie Eckert; his mother and stepfather, Lydia and Henry Berg, Bismarck; one sister, Patricia Hintz, Bismarck; and two brothers, James, Woodbury, Minn., and Vernon, Waco, Texas.

He was preceded in death by his father, Walter.

Michael Glanville
loved to golf.

Visitation will be from 5 to 7 p.m. today and 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday at Perry Funeral Home, Mandan.

Mr. Glanville was born April 5, 1950, in Bismarck, the son of Harold and Mae Glanville. He was raised and attended rural schools near Wing, and graduated from Wing High School in 1968. He attended Wahpeton State School of Science and then worked for North Dakota Highway Department until 1974. He moved to Wing in 1974 and began farming. In 1984 they moved to Bismarck, where he worked as a real estate agent for Oak Tree Realty. He moved to Mesa, Ariz., in 1986 and returned to Bismarck in 1987. He then worked for Henderson and Associates as an appraiser. He then worked for Bismarck Realty and started Glanville and Associates Appraisal Co. He married Monica Sackman, April 24, 1971, at Bismarck.

He is survived by his wife, Monica; two sons, Marc and Matthew, both at home; his mother and stepfather, Mae and Pat McFerran, Bismarck; two sisters and one brother-in-law, Mary and Clark Wold, Aberdeen, S.D., and Susan Kahler, Mesa; three nieces and seven nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father, Harold.

Viola Bailey

Viola Bailey, 74, 2126 Kavaney Drive No. 7, Bismarck, died June 6, 1993, in the Mandan hospital. Services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Bismarck, with the Rev. Marvin Kormann officiating. Burial will be at 2:30 p.m., in Tuttle Cemetery.

Visitation will begin at 9 a.m. Tuesday, at Boelter Funeral Home, Bismarck and will continue one hour before services at the church.

Viola Sauter was born Sept. 23, 1918, in Burleigh County, the daughter of Eberhard and Mathilda (Freeh) Sauter. Vi was born on a farm four miles southeast of Arena. The family moved to Tuttle in 1922 where Vi was raised and graduated from Tuttle High School in 1936. Following graduation, Vi moved to Tuscon, Ariz. where she worked at the Flying V Dude Ranch. She met John (Jack) H. Bailey there and married him Jan. 14, 1942. The Baileys moved to Bismarck in 1946 where they worked for the Greyhound Corp. as managers of the Greyhound Post House (Bus Depot Restaurant). The Baileys moved to Valley City in 1966 where Vi worked as cashier and bookkeeper for the Crawford Restaurant. Vi retired in 1980 and the Baileys moved back to Bismarck in 1983.

She is survived by one daughter and son-in-law, Sandra and Paul Ogren, St. Paul, Minn.; three sisters, Erna Riskedahl and May McFerran, both of Bismarck, and Lynora Scherbenske, Tuttle; and one brother, Eddie, Bismarck.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Jack, who died May 14, 1991.

Henry Berg

Henry R. Berg, 89, Bismarck, died Sept. 9, 2003, in a Bismarck hospital. Services will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday at First Lutheran Church, Bismarck, with the Rev. Allen Wagner officiating. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery, Bismarck.

Henry Berg

Visitation will be held from 2 to 9 p.m. Thursday and 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday at Eastgate Funeral Service, Bismarck, where a prayer service will be held at 7 p.m. Friday. Visitation will also be held for one hour prior to the service at the church.

Henry R. Berg was born Jan. 21, 1914, in Robinson, the son of Martin and Rosanna (Gilbertson) Berg. He was raised and educated in Robinson. He farmed in Washburn for several years. On July 18, 1937, he married Lydia Nathan in Robinson. Lydia died on Aug. 16, 1970.

Henry married Lydia (Leno) Sauter on Jan. 15, 1972, in Bismarck. With this marriage, Henry enjoyed the love of his new family of three sons and a daughter. Henry was employed with Twin City Implement in Bismarck for many years until his retirement.

Henry loved the outdoors and enjoyed gardening, bird watching and growing flowers. He was a lifetime member of the Bismarck Eagles Club and First Lutheran Church.

Henry is survived by his wife, Lydia, Bismarck; two sons and three daughters-in-law, Jim and Judy Sauter, Hugo, Minn., Vern and Martha Sauter, Waco, Texas, and Van Sauter, Bismarck; one daughter and son-in-law, Pat and Charlie Hintz, Bismarck; nine grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; two brothers and one sister-in-law, Harry Berg, Bottineau, and Gerhard and June Berg, Seattle; three sisters and one brother-in-law, Mabel Solheim, Bismarck, and Evelyn and Oscar Sorhus and Edna Heimer, all of Seattle; a special nephew, Marion Knudtson; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Lydia; one son, Duane Sauter; four sisters, Luella Christianson, Genora Kittelson, Miranda Knudson and Myrtle Bogle; one sister-in-law; and five brothers-in-law.

Mary Wold

Mary Wold, 56, Aberdeen, S.D., died Dec. 6, 2004, at her home surrounded by her family. Services will be held at 3:45 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 9, at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Aberdeen, with the Rev. Roger Noer officiating.

Mary Wold

Visitation will be held from 1 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at Spitzer Funeral Home, 320 Sixth Ave. S.E., Aberdeen, where a prayer service will be held at 8 p.m. Visitation will continue one hour prior to services at the church.

Mary Ellen Glanville was born May 12, 1948, in Bismarck, the daughter of Harold and Mae (Sauter) Glanville. She and her younger brother and sister grew up on their family farm in Wing. Mary graduated from Wing High School in 1966.

She married Clark J. Wold on April 5, 1969, in Wing. She completed her bachelor of science in mathematics at Jamestown College in 1970. While living in Jamestown, she began her teaching career in Kensel. In 1973, Clark and Mary established their home in Bismarck where she taught math at Century High School and St. Mary's High School. Clark and Mary moved to Aberdeen in 1990. She began teaching at Simmons Junior High in 1991 and transferred to Central High School in 2000. She taught there until she became ill in 2004.

Mary was an active member of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, the National Council of Teachers of Math and the Aberdeen Education Association. She valued her many friendships and enjoyed working in the garden with her husband, cross-stitching and spending time with her children.

Grateful for having shared her life include her loving husband, Clark; one son, Christopher (fiancee, Nicole Camacho) Wold, Marietta, Ga.; one daughter, Larissa (Ryan) Laber, Eau Claire, Wis.; her mother, Mae McFerran, Bismarck; her sister, Susan Kahler, Phoenix; her sisters-in-law, Janet (Don) Kamnikar, Fort Collins, Colo., and Meryl (Jack) Atterberry, Jefferson City, Mo.; and eight nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her father, Harold Glanville; her stepfather, Pat McFerran; and her brother, Michael Glanville.

Memorials may be sent to North Plains Hospice or your local hospice agency.

John Sauter

John Leland Sauter, 48, passed from this life Aug. 12, 2011, at St. Alexius Medical Center, Bismarck. John's wishes for his body to be donated to the University of North Dakota School of Medicine have been carried out, with cremation to take place at a later date.

John Sauter

A time of remembrance for family and friends will be held from 4 to 8 p.m. Friday at Bismarck Funeral Home, 3723 Lockport St., Bismarck.

John was born Jan. 7, 1963, in Bismarck, the son of Edwin and Mabel (Hertz) Sauter. He was raised and educated in Tuttle, graduating from Tuttle High School in 1981. John graduated from the University of North Dakota in 1985 and earned a master's degree from UND in 1991.

Always interested in politics and public service, John completed internships with Rep. Byron Dorgan and the office of the state tax commissioner while attending UND, and later worked at the Tax Department in a full-time position. He was a part of the campaign staff for Kent Conrad in 1986 when Conrad was first elected to the U.S. Senate.

After receiving his MPA, John served as the coordinator for the North Dakota Children's Services coordinating committee. John worked in a variety of fields throughout his career, including real estate and property management. At the time of his death, he was a self-employed property manager with ADRY Management.

John married Judy Tinjum on Oct. 17, 1987, and they had two sons, Adam Bryant and Ryan Daniel. John was a proud father and cherished his time with his sons, from trips to Cub Scout camps, his and Ryan's road trip to Montana in the summer of 2010, and his and Adam's mutual interests in CD and album collecting. A special experience the three of them shared and will be remembered was a hot air balloon ride over the Black Hills.

John's life journey led him to Gale Sazama, and on Aug. 11, 2011, John and Gale were married in Bismarck, expanding his family to include two stepsons, Nathan and Jesse. Although his and Gale's life journey together had only just begun and was too short, their journey and the time they had together was filled with love, happiness, and precious memories. John and Gale enjoyed spending time together, having deep conversations about many different interests and topics.

Those who knew John will always remember his true love of music and concerts. He enjoyed finding a good deal on music by shopping at many different pawn shops and loved reading Agatha Christie books. John enjoyed spending time with his many friends and having intellectual conversations about politics and religion with the different people in his life. He enjoyed spending time with his faithful companion, his dog, Harvey. John always said Harvey found him, and not the other way around.

John volunteered with the MS Association and Beginning Experience. He was very active with Beginning Experience and liked being able to give back by helping others with the healing process. He was a member of the Optimist Club of Bismarck and the Bismarck Masonic Lodge.

John is survived by his wife, Gale Sazama-Sauter, Bismarck; his sons, Adam and Ryan Sauter, Bismarck; his father and stepmother, Edwin and Ella Sauter, Bismarck; two stepsons, Nathan (Minneapolis) and Jesse (Bismarck) Sazama-Damlo; his stepsister, Bonnie Clark (Kim) Halvorson, Lincoln; his aunt, Mae McFerren, Mesa, Ariz.; and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

John was preceded in death by his mother; his grandparents; and his mother-in-law.

Go to www.bismarckfuneralhome.com to sign the online guest book or to send a message of condolence.

Robert Boehm

Robert A. Boehm, Mandan, 75, died Aug. 15, 2011, with his family at his side at MedCenter One, Bismarck. Mass of Christian burial will be held at 12:30 p.m. Friday, Aug. 19, at St. Joseph Catholic Church, Mandan, with the Rev. Shane Campbell as celebrant. Burial will be at 9 a.m. Monday, Aug. 22, at the North Dakota Veterans Cemetery with military honors provided by the VFW Post No. 707 and American Legion Post No. 40.

Robert Boehm

Visitation will be held from 3 to 9 p.m. Thursday at Weigel Funeral Home, Mandan, followed by a parish vigil at 7 p.m. Visitation will continue one hour before the service at the church on Friday.

Robert Boehm was born on May 3, 1936, to Betty (Boehm) in Mandan. He joined the United States Navy in 1954. He then married Frances Schmidt on June 20, 1959, in Bismarck. He attended the Hanson Trade School in Fargo, where he learned his trade in auto body work. He did the work for various auto body dealers but the majority of his career was spent at Corwin Churchill Motors of Bismarck.

Bob lived his life in a humble and simple way, mild-mannered and with his family central in his life. Throughout his life, he enjoyed the outdoors, whether it was boating, camping or spending time at the lake. Bob took great pride in restoring cars, whether that be the engine or body, and sharing that knowledge with his kids. He also got great enjoyment from dancing, playing pinocle and especially playing pool with his buddies at Liberty Heights. He was a man of strong faith, which was evident in the way he dealt with his health issues and any other problems that arose in his life.

Bob will be missed by his wife of 52 years, Frances; his daughters, Sheila Dixon, Gilbert, Ariz., and Sandie (Kurt) Ehrmantraut, Mandan; his sons, Shannon and Scott (Lisa), both of Bismarck, Steve, Roy, Wash., Shawn (Lynn), Mandan, and Shane (Jen) Phoenix, Ariz.; his grandchildren, Justin, Jamie and Jordan Dixon, Zach, McKayla, Jordan, Genna, Kennedy and Keaton Boehm and Ryan and Craig Ehrmantraut; his great-grandchild, Hailey Wade; and his brother, Jim (Donna) Boehm, Mandan.

Bob was preceded in death by his mother, Betty.

Go to www.weigelfuneral.com to sign the online guest book and view flower photos.

Lloyd Granley

WILLISTON — Lloyd Granley, 59, Williston and Bainville, Mont., died Aug. 12, 2011, at his home in Bainville. Services will be held at 2 p.m. MDT Thursday, Aug. 18, at Bainville School. Interment will follow at Bainville Cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Linda, Williston; three children, Aaron, Tyler and Chris Connolly, all of Williston; three sisters, Arlene Sellers, Newburgh, Ind., Marion Harrelson, Bainville, Mont., and Joyce Schmidt, Wenatchee, Wash.; and his brother, Dave, Bainville, (Everson Funeral Home, Williston)

(More deaths, state deaths and funerals today on 7A.)

Eddie Sauter

Eddie Sauter, 92, passed away Feb. 14, 2013, at the Baptist Home, Bismarck. Services will be held at 2 p.m. today, Feb. 19, in the chapel at Baptist Home.

Eddie "Ed"
Sauter

Eddie Sauter was born July 15, 1920, in Arena, the seventh of 10 children, of Eberhardt and Mathilda (Freeh) Sauter. He moved with his family to Tuttle in 1922. Ed attended school in Tuttle and graduated from Tuttle High School in 1939.

Eddie was united in marriage to Mabel Hertz on Nov. 2, 1945. Ed and Mabel first operated a cafe in Tuttle. In 1946, Ed became a partner in a liquor store and bar, buying out his partner in 1951. Ed continued to operate the bar for over 30 years, until his retirement. Ed graduated from auctioneering school in 1944 and cried auctions first with his father and then on his own for many years. In 1963, Ed and Mabel welcomed a son, John Leland. Ed and John lost their wife and mother in May 1977.

After Eddie sold his bar, he moved to Bismarck. He and Ella Clark were married June 13, 1984. Ella moved to the Baptist Home in December 2005. Ed visited her daily and then also moved to the Baptist Home in July 2011.

Eddie enjoyed visiting with family and friends, shooting pool, playing cards and watching baseball on TV. Both Ed and Ella were active members of Trinity Lutheran Church in Bismarck and volunteered at the Bismarck Senior Center.

Ed is survived by his wife, Ella; one sister, Mae McFerrer, Mesa, Ariz.; one stepdaughter, Boni (Kim) Halvorson, Bismarck; two grandsons, Adam and Ryan Sauter, Bismarck; one daughter-in-law, Gale Sazama Sauter, Brainerd, Minn.; and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Mable; his son, John; two brothers, Fred and Walter; and six sisters, Hilda, Louise, Erna, Viola, Ruby and Lynora.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorials to Baptist Home or the Humane Society.

To Baptist Home staff on every level — a heartfelt thank you for the wonderful, loving, professional care you gave to Ed.

Go to www.bismarckfuneralhome.com to sign the online guest book or to send a message of condolence to the family. (Bismarck Funeral Home)

Ella Sauter

Ella Stern Clark Sauter, 89, Bismarck, died Jan. 9, 2014, at the Baptist Care Center. A private family graveside service was held. A family memorial service will be held at a later date.

Ella Sauter

Further arrangements are pending with Bismarck Funeral Home and Crematory.

Mae McFerran

Mae Glanville McFerran, 86, formerly of Tuttle, Wing and Bismarck, died Feb. 25, 2014, in Phoenix. A memorial service will be held in the spring in Wing. Further arrangements are pending.